MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS

By Pratha Patel

The NSS unit of mithibai conducted an event started at 2:30pm and continued till 4:00pm. NSS Mithibai with Student Induction Program arranged a successful event on Mental Health Awareness (The Hangout) in collaboration with the NGO 'The Movement'.

Experts had come from the NGO to guide the students about the importance of Mental Health. They described depression as a 'black dog' some thing that is negative and sticks with us. And had an interactive discussion on how to get rid of the black dog and live a healthy life

This event were mainly directed to the First Year students. The aim of the event was to aware the First Year students with the idea of Mental Health and to speak up if they need help.

The event was managed by NSS leaders. Working excellently to manage the crowd and making the guests feel comfortable.

ENTERTAINMENT

MOVIE REVIEWS

BY Urvi & Dhvani

#1 So basically it was a great end to the Phase 1 of Infinity Saga couldn't believe that Spiderman would get into the Avengers. Every exciting movie as we all have grown up watching Spiderman but this version of Spiderman movie took it to another level .
.....Krisha Bhalani

#2 Toning down after endgame. Traumatizing event, the way a 16yr old teen is shown to handle the after effects of being a superhero , after the loss of his idol , is heart wrenching. I hope that they realise the next installment soon because the cliffhanger of this movie is just too much for a Spiderman fan.Tanisha Parmar

3# The post credit scene took a different turn which I did not see coming! Its mind-blowing! Loved it!
