NOTICE
(Degree College Faculty)

All faculty members are hereby informed that before publishing any research paper, article, book chapter, or other scholarly work, it is mandatory to submit the Plagiarism Report to the Research and Development Cell for verification and record purposes.

This step is essential to ensure academic integrity and adherence to institutional and regulatory guidelines. Kindly note that no research work will be considered for career advancement promotion without prior submission of the plagiarism report.

Faculty members are requested to strictly comply with this directive and submit the report well in advance of the intended publication date.
