NOTICE FOR STUDENTS

B.Com./B.A./B.Sc./All Other Self-Financed Courses

This is to inform all NSS enrolled students that NSS enrollment is compulsory for a period of two consecutive years (four semesters). During this period, every student must mandatorily participate in one NSS Special Residential Camp and complete all prescribed NSS activities as part of the programme requirements.

As per NSS norms, every enrolled student is required to complete:

- 60 hours of regular NSS activities each semester, totaling 240 hours over four semesters, and
- One Special Residential Camp during the two-year enrollment period.

Failure to fulfill the above mandatory requirements will result in the following consequences:

- The student will not be awarded the 2 credits allotted for NSS as a co-curricular activity.
- The student's mark-sheet will be kept in abeyance until all NSS requirements are duly completed.

All NSS enrolled students are hereby directed to strictly comply with the above instructions and ensure timely completion of the mandatory NSS activities.
